FOR MAYOR OF CLEVELAND

Murder on Arvon Mark State Election in Kentucky—Negro Republican Shot and Killed by Democrat Agent.

In New York State Democrats Succeeded in Electing Majority Candidates in Many Municipalities—Johnson's Defeat in Cleveland After Eight Years Due to the Business Men Tiring of His Constant Warfare on Street Cleanliness and Campaign for Three Cent Fare.

New York, Nov. 2.—Machine politics had a good day today throughout the country. Elections were held in many states and cities and reformers, old and new, generally suffered defeat at the polls.

In Philadelphia, where the better elements combined to elect a reformer, the Republican machine of the election for district attorney, D. Clarence Gresham, a local politician, was also badly clabbed, but when neighbors visited him on Tuesday night he was still able to boast that he had committed the deed.

At the polls, the election was attracted by the howling of hungry cats and the absence of any other sound. The machine, however, was victorious, electing a reformer, the Republican machine, by a small plurality. Mayor Johnson was candidate for a fifth term as mayor and the issues were purely local.

In Cincinnati the Republican nominee of Boss Cox, Dr. Schwab, was elected mayor by an increased Republican majority. He is the man that President Taft wished to go home to vote against. Brand Wolff was the most notable exception of the day to the defeat of independence.

He was re-elected mayor of Toledo by an estimated plurality of 2,000, a considerable loss, even in places where the last election.

Machine Fight in Indianapolis.—In Indianapolis, where the machine politics were fighting machine against machine, "Tom" Taggart's candidate for mayor on the Democratic ticket, Charles A. Gause, was defeated by Samuel P. Hanna, a local politician, by a vote of 27,170 to 25,707. Taggart made a desperate attempt to carry it off, giving personal care of the campaign and on sure was he of victory before election day. The machine favored his candidate.

The defeat of Shank was a heavy blow, and many mark the beginning of the end of his machine rule in the city.

Massachusetts State Election.—In Massachusetts the gubernatorial election resulted in a victory for the Republican machine. With Senator Briggs at the helm the Republicans were confident of their usual victory. The machine pulled out all the stops, and the city of Boston given its usual Democratic plurality instead of falling off close to 10,000. Governor Briggs would not have been re-elected.

James E. Valley, the Democratic candidate, would have succeeded him. Briggs was elected by a plurality of 10,000 to 12,000 instead of the nominal Republican plurality of 10,000 to 40,000 and over 100,000 votes.

Democrats Generally Successful.—Majority elections were held in many cities of New York state and generally were favorable to the Democrats. Buffalo lost its city by electing a local politician, Mayor, Democrat, by 1,234 plurality. Schenectady was won by a Republican, and Binghamton switched from a Republican to a Democratic mayor. Utica also switched from a Republican to a Democratic mayor.

Virginia Election.—Democratic Governor and House elected a Republican. The indications are that Louisville, Ky., has elected a Democrat.

Tammany Mayor in New York.—New York, Nov. 2.—Judge Gaylor was elected mayor of Greater New York today by a plurality of 75,000. The vote was divided as follows: Gaylor, 75,000; Bannard, 75,000; Heart, 75,000.

STRATHCONA NEWS

SUNDAY STREET CAR BY-LAW
TO BE SUBMITTED DEC. 13TH

Vote Upon This Long Standing Matter Will be Taken on the Same Day as the Municipal Election
Are Held in December.

At last night's meeting of the Strathcona city council the long delayed by-law providing for the taking of a plebiscite upon the question of Sunday street car operation in Strathcona was again re-considered in response to a petition of the ratepayers. The by-law was given a third reading and it was arranged that it be voted upon the same date as the municipal election.

Mayor Duggan urged the clerk and Aldermen Sheppard, Bush, LeDum, Elliott, Nipson and Dornan were in attendance. The Sunday by-law question was practically the only matter of any great importance that was considered.

A largely signed petition was presented from prominent Strathcona citizens asking that the council order to the city engineer to prepare a plan for the Sunday operation of street cars. It was signed by John Walker, Geo. F. Dornan, W. J. Cameron, A. Davies, S. Archibald, and many others. The petition was filed.

Later in the meeting the by-law which had already been read twice was given a third reading and provisionally passed.

The date set for the taking of the vote was fixed for the same day as the municipal election. In December, the same day as the municipal election.

The biggest objection taken to the franchise was, if power to operate cars were granted by plebiscite, it could not be revoked at any future time.

The Communications.

The communications were brief and unimportant. Canada Newspaper Company asking for copies of recent photos of scenes in and around Strathcona. The letter was referred to the board of trade.

Century Syndicate, N. Y., wrote asking for literature with reference to Strathcona, in order that it might be used as the advantages of other Western points might be made more generally known to the world. The letter was also passed over to the board of trade.

Reports of Committees.

Aldermen Bush for the water and sewer committee reported that an application had been received from Mr. Brock for a water and sewer extension to his new home on Fifth street, east. This could only be done by cutting out some other extension planned for this year. The committee were of the opinion that this work should be done. The extension would be 214 feet long and would cost $271. The report of the committee was adopted.

Alderman Elliott of the police committee presented a letter from chief of police Robinson, pointing out the necessity of having another man on the force. The alderman explained the need of another man in view of the fact that many complaints were coming in from outside points and the chief could not attend to them. At present a call often came to the station when there was no one there to respond.

This matter was left with the board of health and the police committee to make arrangements.

The chief of police read a number of quotations of prices he had received for cells for the police in connection with the new city hall. The question of procuring cells was left with the committee who have the building in charge.

Sewer Inquiries.

Alderman LeDum inquired on the assessment for water rates. There was a charge of ten cents a foot on property for water frontage which he did not think was fair in that the same grade existed as for water and sewer frontage.

Alderman Sheppard remarked that the matter could not be changed at the present time.

This point was discussed at some length. Alderman LeDum contending that water was no use unless there was a sewer also laid.

Alderman Bush said that John Cameron had been over from Edmonton a number of times to see about the building of the new bridge across Willoughby at the head of the main sewer road. The government was all ready to start work when the land which was owned by the Board of Health was procured. Mr. Bush was willing to deposit the land and accept a note in payment if necessary.

Alderman Sheppard said this matter had been before the council for two years. Mr. Bush had brought down his price from $1000 to $500. The government were ready to build the bridge which it was eventually expected would take the place of the Bowler Hill road. A motion was passed that the deal with Mr. Bush be negotiated and the provision made for payment.

Sewer Extensions.

Mayor Duggan asked if John Walker had asked for sewer connection on Fourth Avenue which he had never obtained. Alderman Bush said that he did not know of any application having been turned down except in the application for the sewer extension to the west end.

Alderman Tipton said he was called upon last evening by Samuel Hamerton who said that during the night he had presented a bill.

Secretary Treasurer Clark said the bill had only come in a few days ago and had been turned over to the board of health.

To Amend By-Law. Alderman LeDum gave notice that at next meeting he would move to amend the by-law relating to the extension of water and sewer frontage.

NELSON SWINDLER AT LARGE.

Man Who Victimised Imperial Bank Did Up Others.

Nelson, Nov. 2.—John Woolton, who victimised the local branch of the Imperial Bank in the early part of October to the extent of $2000, has been informed relating to the man wanted, which tends to show that he was an habitual swindler. Woolton has come from San Francisco that he had been here. Woolton, under the name of Frederick, secured the Pacific Mail Steamship Company by means of a forged check on the bank at New Westminster, B.C. Tendering the accepted check for $200, he bought seven tickets for passage from San Francisco to Seattle, costing $175, and received $15 in change. He did the Great Northern railway out of $150 for a somewhat similar game, and a hotel that he favored with his passport was also out $100. It is reported that at Vancouver a man answering to the description of Woolton, personated into a hotel, that William Blakenore, formerly of Nelson, now editor of the Victoria Post.

The journalist is said to have advanced $500 to the slick swindler, this also being the Nelson affair. He appears to have operated under the name of the Woolton, Weldon & Watson, as well as Frederick.

WEATHER SITUATION.

The Census and Statistics Monthly, issued by the Dominion Department of Agriculture, quotes three authorities on the world's 1909 wheat crop. These are the Hungarian Department of Agriculture, Bevilin and Dermlach. The estimates made by these authorities came rather early in the season, but they still serve for purposes of comparison with previous years.

Taking the average of the three estimates together they show a total world's crop of 3,362,000,000 bushels this year, as compared with 3,360,000,000 in 1908; 3,128,000,000 in 1907, and 3,400,000,000 in 1906. In all, it will be seen that the world's crop this year, while considerably larger than that of the two previous years, is still below that of 1906.

The world's consumption of wheat, will this year be much lower than it was in either 1907 or 1908, and moreover, during the two years of short production reserves must have been very greatly depleted. Even in 1908, when a large crop was evident, wheat sold as high as $1.11 1/2 in Chicago in May of the following year, while in 1908, after the short crop of 1906, it sold at $1.37. Thus, farmers who are holding their wheat for higher prices this year will find some reason for their action in the figures just quoted.

That American farmers generally are still holding back wheat is evident from the fact that shipments from all North America last week were less than 4,000,000 bushels, while for the same week a year ago, with a smaller crop to go upon, shipments were 6,500,000.

R. McKenzie, secretary of the Grain Growers' Grain Company, estimates that about 50 per cent. of the wheat consigned by farmers to the Canadian West to lake terminals is being held for higher prices. This statement will explain the wide difference between receipts and shipments at Port William and Port Arthur. Mr. McKenzie says that a very considerable quantity of wheat is being held by farmers on farms as well.

It is not generally considered that present quotations will continue long after the present year, when the 1909 crop has been marketed. Evidence in support of this is found in what has already occurred in England, where, because of the fairly high price ruling last year, the area to be sown was increased by 12 per cent. this season. It is thought that other countries will also increase their acreage. Unless, therefore, unforeseen disaster overtakes the 1909 crop, lower prices may be looked for after the harvest of that year.

There seems no inclination on the part of farmers in the Edmonton district to hold their wheat. With good prices offered by the Winnipeg market and railway facilities for getting the wheat out of the country, shipments are being made regularly. November wheat closed at Port William on Tuesday evening at 90 1/2. December delivery 90 1/2. May delivery 92 1/2. The receipts at the local mills have decreased, due to the elevators, which have been erected in the near vicinity for the handling of grain for the Winnipeg market. It is estimated that 80,000 bushels of wheat were received by the Edmonton millers during the month of October. Most of this came in from carload lots, as farmers along the railway lines, although only a dozen miles away, are shipping in extra rather than hauling by wagon. Local millers are paying a few cents per bushel over the Port William market in order to secure the wheat, which otherwise would probably go to the lake ports. Quotations today are based on the Port William markets are 84 1/2 per bushel, but local millers are paying 85 cents per bushel at the mills.

FARM NOTES.

The sensation in the grain trade to the high price of flax. Flax is a paying commodity when it goes above $1.50 a bushel as high as $1.50 has been reached on the Winnipeg market. Railway facilities in the Edmonton district have greatly changed the conditions under which grain is being marketed. Years ago grain was hauled in wagons great distances to the Edmonton millers and prices were based on the Winnipeg market. With the C.N.R. on the north side of the river, the C.P.R. on the south side, and the G.T.F. from due east, with the branch lines of each railway to the country, the grain is shipped out of the country directly from the railway as soon as it reaches the elevators. About 50,000 bushels of wheat were received by the local millers during the month of October and nearly all of this was shipped in car loads out of the railway lines. Moreover there is a decrease in the amount of grain shipped to Edmonton this year over last, and in order to secure the grain they want the local millers are paying a premium of from two to five cents per bushel, over Port William prices. One notable change in the market situation is seen at Clover Bar where an elevator is now being erected at Beaton's. For years the bulk of the grain offered by the Clover Bar farmers was marketed in Edmonton but now the local elevator will handle it.

A feature of the operations on the farm this fall is the very little fall plowing that is being done. Farmers, however, are not all so backward in their time as they are. Some are plowing up until next spring. The farmer who has with two good teams to plow will not do much more than some of those with one team and a favorable weather. This means that he will be from ten days to two weeks later in getting in his crop than he would be if he had the necessary work this fall. Late seeding makes late harvest, late harvest means late threshing and late threshing means very little plowing before another winter sets in.

The enormous amount of hay marketed in Edmonton for local consumption and shipped out from this point during the past year leads to the belief that the hay crop is the best revenue producer for the farmer in the Edmonton district. Prices have been strong since the new crop put in its appearance, and even at this season of the year when there are no market every day the price is firm at $15 per ton for good timothy. The former estimate that with prices high in November they will continue to be high and no more will be very high before the new crop next summer.

The consequence is that there may be a falling off in the grain production in the district next year and a considerable increase in the production of hay. A good many farmers will market from 100 to 200 tons of hay in Edmonton from last year's crop and few there will be that do not sell off more hay than last year.

It takes a lot of grain to make the same revenue that it used to make. The stock raiser, however, is at present making a tour of the country east of Wetaskiwin with a view to securing some reliable buyers who will experience with a 20 per cent. of the J. V. Griffin plan which is calculated to strengthen the hog litter and thus decrease the mortality among young pigs. He will require farmers to make the crop, not extending over a year at least. R. H. Bull and son of Brampton, Ont., report that they are now at home after very successful show seasons with their Jerseys. At present the herd is 200 strong of which they are offering 10 bulls of different ages and 90 females for sale. A representative will reach Alberta this month for which orders are now being received.

The Edmonton market square has been fairly active during the week. Hay is being offered freely and fresh receipts are sold in large quantities daily. Prices are unchanged and no particular features of the market have arisen.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKETS.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—Wheat—The upper hand from start to finish to the local quoters were about 1/4 lower. It was a stubborn market during the morning, with good rally at one time on very moderate buying. After midday a La Salle street leader sold about one-quarter million December wheat and about three times as much May. This started the general selling, which gave the late break. In addition to this selling by a lone leader there was bearish news from the outside, as Minneapolis, Duluth, Toledo, St. Louis, Kansas City and Omaha all reported cash stocks weaker and lower. This took away from the market its best support feature, which held cash wheat premiums. Late messages from Duluth claimed that wheat was not all sold. There was not much action in corn and prices at the close were 1/4 lower for December and 1/2 lower for May and smaller receipts than estimated at 314 cars; small estimate of 120 cars for this market tomorrow.

Steady cash market and spring sale of 100,000 bushels were the supporting features. The forecast is for the fine weather for handling the new corn. Kansas City sent bearish all over on corn.

Oats sympathized with the other grain, and prices weakened a little for the day. Chicago has 3,600,000 bushels contract oats. Bear leaders sold both December and May. Cash prices were 1/4 to 1/2 lower. Trade in provisions began with profit taking in hog products. This was followed by some stop loss selling and a further break. Only moderate recovery was established later. The small herd stocks of the world and the publications of all stocks of provisions in Chicago had a sustaining effect after the morning break.
